

CAMP RULES

1. Counselor's first responsibility is to your CAMPERS. Make certain that you know where they are at all times!
2. COUNSELORS will be with their assigned campers unless assigned elsewhere.
3. Each cabin must have a counselor supervising it AT ALL TIMES when the campers are in bed . . . counselors should rotate supervising the cabin during free time.
4. Counselors will take part in activities. Counselors will keep themselves dispersed amongst the campers. Help the camper enjoy their experience to the fullest.
5. Any problems with campers or counselors . . . inform the Camp Director or a Leader IMMEDIATELY!!
6. YOU are the example that the camper follow . . . use your best table manners and watch your language at ALL TIMES! At meal times, watch and/or help the campers dish up their plates, some campers don't know what a serving size is.
7. Counselor's use of electronic communication devices including cell phones, tablets, etc. on island premises is prohibited during program times (breakout sessions and large group activities). Counselors are permitted to possess "electronic communication devices" on the island, as long as they are stored "out of sight" and kept in the off position during program times. You can use the electronic during your free times. Any camper or counselor found violating this policy will have their phone, will have their phone confiscated until the end of camp. Unplug and enjoy your camp experience.
8. Personal pictures maybe taken by camera or by phone. Please avoid posting images of campers to social media. The agency has strict guidelines as to which campers may or may not have their photos taken, as well as, how the photos may be used. The photo release signed by the campers/guardians gives permission to photographs only to SOAR Fox Cities.
9. THE WATERFRONT MUST BE SECURE AT ALL TIMES. The waterfront is only available at scheduled times. No one should be down by the water unless there is a scheduled activity. Life jackets will be worn by all in the boats/canoes. Counselors may use the waterfront during free times with the Waterfront Director's permission and a lifeguard is at the waterfront. Waterfront rules will be reviewed at the counselor meeting Sunday evening.
10. Medication will be given in the dining hall at meal time and bedtime. Counselors are to see that those receiving medications are there ON TIME!! NO MEDICATION should be in the cabin! If any camper has medication, let the Camp Director or Nursing staff know IMMEDIATELY!! All medications for campers and counselors should be turned into the Camp Nurse at registration.

11. All counselors will be in their OWN cabins BY MIDNIGHT! First violation . . . last violation . . . you will be sent home!
12. BE PROMPT! The COUNSELOR is RESPONSIBLE to get the cabin or camper to activities/meals on time! Allow EXTRA time for campers to move from one activity to another or to use the bathroom.
13. IMPORTANT!! Counselors will not leave the island without permission of the Camp Director.
14. Chore boy's cabins are off limits to all campers and counselors.
15. Counselors are not to go in the kitchen. You are encouraged to store your snacks in the Headquarters kitchen to avoid bugs and chipmunks in the cabins. Please pack your snacks discretely as the campers are not allowed to take snacks with them.
16. The pop machine will be unplugged and off limits when the campers are present.
17. THERE IS NO SMOKING ON THE ISLAND. NO FIREWORKS ARE ALLOWED ON THE ISLAND. THERE IS AN EXTREME FIRE HAZARD ALWAYS PRESENT!
18. NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES OR ILLEGAL DRUGS ARE ALLOWED AT CAMP.
19. Shoes will be worn at ALL TIMES except when in the water.
20. NO wet bathing suits in the dining hall.
21. PLEASE AVOID BRINGING CHEWING GUM.

We as parents and counselors understand and agree to abide by the rules and regulations for counselors at Camp Onaway Island. Violations of these rules will result in suspension from counselor duties and will be sent home.
